

ANSWERS IN GENESIS—JAMIE MILLER, CHOIR ROOM

This class will continue its study of Scripture using Answers in Genesis curriculum, with a focus on knowing what the Bible says in a world that has an alternative view of truth. There are booklets available for purchase that go along with each week's lesson.

COLLEGE-AGE & YOUNG ADULTS—DAVE & JULIE SHEELY, PRAYER ROOM

This group is made up of college-age students and young singles or marrieds. A great place to stay connected with friends and dig deeper into your faith.

FAMILY FOUNDATIONS—JUSTIN GRABER & JIM STORY, LIBRARY

This class intentionally chooses short-term studies so those who volunteer on Sundays have freedom to come in and out. It is mainly made up of people who have children or teens at home, with a balance between teaching and conversation.

LIFE ON MISSION—PASTOR JOSH, ZOOM

This class is about living as a missionary right where we are and will cover relevant passages of Scripture and topics like living in our calling, hospitality, understanding culture, discipleship across generations, global mission and local mission, etc. Zoom link:

NEXT STEPS—DOUG HAARER, POSTPONED

This class is not meeting yet but will once Doug is able to be back at church. It is an in-depth discussion about the sermon.

SCRIPTURE STUDY—KENT EBY & CATHERINE HAMPEL, GYM

This class will work its way through the book of Hebrews, passage by passage.

MOVE: AN INTRO TO MISSIONAL LIFE—CHRIS GARNER (4 WEEKS STARTING OCTOBER 25)

This short-term class will step into the life of Jesus to look at how Jesus saw, interacted, and MOVED towards others. This time will allow us to discover how we view others, people, may have in our path, and how we have defined mission.
