

CHRIST-CENTERED

My relationship with Jesus comes first. I am passing it on to someone else.

YOU MAY BE Christ-Centered IF YOU

- Have surrendered everything that once characterized you and continue to surrender them daily.
- Think in terms of the whole church rather than individual preferences or ministries.
- Have a deep and abiding love for Jesus that guides your life.
- Are comfortable sharing your faith with outsiders.
- Are committed to passing on your relationship with Jesus to someone else in a mentoring relationship.

Resources FOR YOU

- The Great Omission by Dallas Willard
- In the Name of Jesus by Henri Nouwen
- Spiritual Direction by Henri Nouwen

TAKING YOUR Next Steps

The journey of faith is about taking next steps toward Christ. These are the most important ones you can take. The bold ones refer to ministries/events that Brenneman offers.

- Familiarize yourself with the discipleship path so that you understand the next steps that others need to take.
- Mentor someone. Meet with one person for one year with the purpose of passing on your faith to them. Read the Bible, pray, and work through some of the next steps they need to take in their journey with Jesus.
- Process your mentoring relationship with other mentors once a month on Wednesday nights at Leadership Renewal.
- Don't assume that you've "arrived." Keep growing, keep seeking the Lord.
